New Year's Eve 2024 Update

Well, Virgin cancelled the Australian second season and moved the Resilient Lady to San Juan. That means:

NEW YEAR'S EVE IS BACK ON!!!!

That's right. Our last Brilliant Lady NYE cruise was planned and would have been amazing. Then, the Brilliant Lady got delayed.

The good news: the new Resilient Lady New Year's Ahoy has a very similar itinerary to the Brilliant Lady New Year's Ahoy.

We will be flying into San Juan on the 26th and I will be coordinating a group dinner on the 26th, as well as some amazing outings on the 27th, and morning of the 28th. Plus, @itschrisandalex of instagram fame are going to cohost the events!!!

We are staying at an amazing luxury resort, with exclusive outings, exclusive ship access and more.
